

Annual Turkey Trot, Fraternity Relay Races Start Tomorrow

With the largest field ever entered, more than 150 runners are expected to get underway at 12:30 p.m. tomorrow at the 13th running of the Turkey Trot. The Alpha Phi Omega sponsored event will start on San Carlos street.

The runners will be staggered along San Carlos with handicap distances awarded the novice runners. The handicaps will range from 25 to 400 yards.

Members of the cross country team will start in front of the Men's Gym with the other handicaps stretching down to Seventh Street. The physical education department has drawn up the handicaps on the basis of the athletic activity of each entrant.

NO FAVORITES

For the first time in two years no favorite has been established before race time, but a member of the State cross country team is again expected to take top honors.

Five cross country runners, Wes Bond, Mike Yeager, Bob Rush, Carlos Saldivar and Bob Tafoya, figure as slight favorites over the remainder of the cross country team.

The course record, set from scratch, is 15 minutes and 29 seconds. The record was established by Don Hubbard, a 1956 graduate. Hubbard won the event three years in a row and set the mark last year. In his sophomore year Hubbard set the handicap mark of 15 minutes 19 seconds with a 100 yard handicap.

RECORD TO STAND

Hubbard's record is expected to stand, according to Mike Ryan, Spartan cross country mentor.

The race will be the final competition of the season for his team.

A police escort will accompany the runners as they travel down Seventh street. The streets crossing Seventh will be blocked as the runners pass by. The race is from the Men's Gym, down Seventh, around Spartan Stadium and back to the Men's Gym. A distance of slightly more than three miles.

GREEK RELAY

While the Turkey Trot is taking place the annual Greek Relay will be run on Fifth street between San Carlos and William.

Ten men will run for each fraternity and will cover 300 yards each. The relay will be run in a shuttle relay style.

The instant one runner passes a determined point, the next man will start.

DU'S WERE '55 WINNERS

Last year Delta Upsilon took top honors in the relay as Alpha Tau Omega took a close second. No time was kept for the race as the timers missed the flash of the starting gun.

This year Sigma Chi, with virtually the same team they had last year, is a strong favorite. The Sigma Chi's took third last year. ATO and DU also figure to be strong contenders. Sigma Chi has been working on the relay for more than a week.

RELAY IS TOSS-UP

The relay figures to be as much of a toss-up as the Turkey Trot itself. In past years the relay has been the closest race of the day.

Jim Joy, Turkey Trot chairman, announced that the relay is set for 12:45 p.m. "Fraternities may still enter the relay, as we have had few entries," Joy said. He gave a 3 p.m. deadline today for the houses to get their list of entrants into Box "A" of the Student Union.

The relay runners are urged to warm up for their race, as strained muscles are common among the relay runners in past years.

QUEEN ANNA BEAL

Centennial Queen Anna Beal will award the first place prizes to the winner of the Turkey Trot and to the winning Greek relay team. Her attendants, Ginni Biondi, Pat Parish, Donna Acuff and Karen Weiss will assist the queen.

The awards will be made following the Turkey Trot, as soon as enough runners, and possibly the final runner in the three mile grind, finish.

A 30 POUND TURKEY

The Turkey Trot winner will receive a trophy and a 30 pound turkey. The second place runner will be awarded a trophy and a duck, and the third place finisher will receive a chicken and a trophy.

The first three relay teams also will receive trophies with the perpetual trophy going to the champ. Another trophy will be awarded the first novice runner to finish the Turkey Trot.

NOVICE'S PRIZE

The athletic department will determine the novices running in the meet. Novices can not be a member, or former member, of the State cross country team.

The most humorous award, and one greatly sought after, is the one dozen eggs given to last place finisher in the Turkey Trot.

FRATERNITY TROPHY

The most heated battle of the day looms in the trophy to be awarded to the fraternity having the most contestants finishing the three mile grind. The DU's have won the perpetual award for the past two years, and according to Joy, if the DU's win again they would gain permanent possession of the trophy.

"The battle between the Greek houses for this trophy, and perhaps in an attempt to stop the DU's from gaining the trophy has boosted the entrants to an all time high," Joy said.

Late Friday afternoon the DU's had entered 65 men and the Delta Sigma Phi's reportedly had neared the 60 man mark.

RUN FULL 3 MILES

"The runners must cover the distance in a reasonable length of time and must cover the full three miles by foot," Joy said.

Checkers will be spotted along the course to check the runners to make sure that all will cover the full distance. Numbers will be given each entrant and will be checked off by members of the A Phi O.

TURKEY TROT CHAIRMAN
Jim Joy holds trophy to be awarded winner of annual race. Last place winner will receive one dozen eggs as reward for his cross country running ability.

SJ Campus Chest Committee Plans December Drive

The Campus Chest Fund Drive committee set its goal for 1956 at $10,000 at a meeting Thursday, according to Bob Hofeldt, committee chairman.

The funds collected on the SJS campus will be distributed to the Community Chest, Red Cross, World University Students, March of Dimes, Heart Association and the Cancer Association.

In 1954, the last time the Campus Chest solicited funds here, a majority of the money was given to the Community Chest.

Hofeldt said there had as yet been no break down on the division of funds for this year's drive. The chairman had high hopes of bettering what he called "the pathetic showing of the 1954 drive" when only $1092 was donated.

"The drive will be held sometime before Christmas," Hofeldt said, adding "I'm sure the students will find it in their hearts to donate to such worthy causes and I think with all-out student support, we can achieve the goal we have set."

Presently working on the committee are Nancy English and Nancy Hanson, co-publicity chairmen; Jan Saxton, secretary; Don Smith, treasurer; Wiley Schmidt, special events chairman; and Nancy Strickler, solicitation chairman.

Vets Subsistence Applications Due

Veterans planning to enter college for the first time this spring semester should file applications for federal or state aid by the end of this month, the County Veterans' Service Office advises.

Veterans now in attendance under the Korean GI Bill need take no further action.

Those now attending who are eligible for subsistence from the Veterans Administration, but are not receiving it, also must file an application if they wish to collect during the spring term.

Applications filed well in advance will assure the receipt of the first check on the 20th of the month following the first month of training.

Librarian Defends Book Check System

Miss Joyce Backus, head librarian, and other library officials came to the defense of the present method of checking out books in the new library wing and claimed the system provides "maximum privilege."

Several students have written letters to the SPARTAN DAILY objecting to being "searched" when leaving the library.

Miss Backus stated that the present policy is to provide an

"open library." "In any library system," Miss Backus said, "there must be a check made someplace, ours is made only at the exits."

Miss Backus stated that she feels the present library provides far more freedom than the old library.

"The book stacks are now open, Miss Backus disclosed, "whereas before a student had to present his ASB card when entering the stack."

NOTHING NEW
Miss Backus pointed out that students who are objecting to opening their briefcases when leaving the library had to do the same thing when leaving the book stacks in the old library.

"The check at the exits of the library isn't made because we are anticipating stealing," Miss Backus said, "it's just that a check has to be made to protect library materials."

"Our entire library is open to anyone," Miss Backus said, "the only restriction is that we reserve the right to check the books of persons when they leave."

USED ELSEWHERE
The plan that SJS is using in checking out books, according to Miss Backus, also is being used at Princeton, Harvard, and Wayne Universities and at Iowa State, Washington State and Pomona College.

"The only difference," the head librarian said, "is that these other schools have far more restrictions than we do."

Miss Backus pointed out that at Princeton there are uniformed police to watch the library and at Wayne students must show their ASB cards when they enter and leave the library.

When questioned about the letters to the SPARTAN DAILY Miss Backus said she feels there is "little cause for objection in return for the privilege."

STATES POLICY
"Our policy is to make the library as available as possible," Miss Backus concluded.

Miss Maude Coleman, reference services librarian, and Fred Stephen, assistant to Miss Backus, said they felt the new library provides for a great deal of freedom.

Miss Coleman said there are many books in the library which are used by thousands of students and there must be a check to protect these books.

Stephen said the check isn't being made because of an increase in missing books but merely to protect the interest of 10,000 San Jose State students.

Thieves Can't Alter Trust

It came as a surprise to us, as it must have to you, to learn last week that there have been a rash of petty thefts on campus lately. Apparently they are not serious in nature, though numerous enough to be annoying. Dr. Stanley C. Benz, dean of students, felt that the situation was serious enough to issue a campus-wide warning, Friday.

Dean Benz called for an attempt by students "to keep the honest person honest" by way of removing temptations. We interpret this to mean that students should be careful where they leave their books, purses and articles of clothing.

Envision with us, if you will, a day when lockers will have to be provided all students. No one will dare leave his belongings in the Reference Room while stepping outside for a cigarette, nor will anyone risk leaving his books in front of the Spartan Shop while inside making a purchase.

Of course, such supposition is ridiculous. There aren't enough thieves on this campus to cause such change. Still, it is sad to note that the police have been consulted, and right now are helping to track down the person or persons guilty of committing two of the latest campus thefts.

One thing that always has helped bind together the students of this college has been a feeling of trust between one another. A few thefts, irksome as they may be, committed by only a handful of individuals, can never change this feeling.

Library Check Policy

Dear Thrust and Parry:

I have noted with interest comments made in this column in reference to the new library's policies relating to the check-out stands located at library exits. I agree, in general, with these comments. In all fairness to the library staff, however, I must point out that in my experience some of the librarians are extremely polite and helpful, while others approach the point of being downright rude. It is with reference to this second class of librarians that my letter is directed.

Perhaps the head librarian might take the over-zealous guards aside and discuss the more honorable methods for checking for stolen books. An open letter to this column might be in order. She might discuss such things as stealing in the old library, anticipated stealing in the new library versus proven cases of theft, what the library policy actually is and what the students might do to help in facilitating the check. Such a report to the student body may prove interesting indeed.

Of course, the controversy boils down to the question of whether or not there is a demonstrated need for such close checking by some members of the library staff. I'm sure that Miss Backus realizes that only one person can answer this question.

There will be a lot of aching feet tomorrow night after some 100 entrants in the 13th Annual Turkey Trot finish a three-mile run over the streets of San Jose.

Long Famine Ends for Spartan Gridders

By DICK O'CONNOR
It took a come through performance by some "second stringers" to do it but the San Jose State Spartans came from behind to edge California Poly 35-28 in a free scoring aerial battle at Spartan Stadium Saturday night.
With the score tied 28-28 and slightly more than five minutes remaining, SJS reserve fullback George "Boomer" Gibbs went through left guard for 48 yards and the deciding touchdown.
The Boomer was caught around the neck by Cal Poly's Dan Delgado on the 16, but shrugged his shoulders and left his tackler sprawled on the five. Mary McKean split the uprights for the 35th point and the show was over.

Coach Bob Bronzan told the Spartans, "You might as well beat Oklahoma or Tennessee out there tonight. The important thing is that you didn't quit." Bronzan added, "That's the first page toward closing the book. We have two more to go."
His reference to the last two games, a Thanksgiving Day game with Fresno State and a Dec. 1 meeting with Hawaii, was lost in the happy shouts of the players.
Cal Poly got on the scoreboard first after Jim Riley fumbled on the San Jose 31. The Mustangs drove for the score in seven plays. Poly halfback Rudy Brooks, a fly in the San Jose eye all night, went the final eight yards. Rowland Palaría converted.

San Jose tied the game late in the quarter as they traveled 31 yards in four plays. Big gains in the drive were a McKean to Hal Boutte pass for 17 yards and a Bob Reinhart to Bob Dunivant pass for the final 16. Reinhart converted to make it 7-7.
The Spartans went ahead a few minutes later when guard Stan Kieth recovered a Poly fumble on the 16. It was Reinhart to Jim Riley for 10 and then fullback Chapman up the middle for the final three. Reinhart converted.
After a quick ball exchange the Mustangs scored in 11 plays from the SJS 46. The score came on a nine yard pass from Jerry Duncan to Brooks. Palaría converted. San Jose went 15 yards for the third score. Cal Poly lost the ball on a bad pass from center on a punt and a 15 yard penalty on the play gave the Spartans the ball on the Mustang 15. McKean went for the last yard. Reinhart converted.

The Mustangs struck with a vengeance after the half. Brooks ran through left guard for 44 yards before Walt Ackemann hauled him down on the SJS 18. Five plays later Bob Beathard went the last four for the TD. Palaría converted to make it 21-21.
With "second stringer" Mel Powell putting pressure on the passes and breaking up running plays all over the field, San Jose held the Mustangs until late in the middle of the final period.

Boxing Team Faces Toughest Schedule

Boxing Coach Julie Menendez officially released Friday what he termed "the best boxing schedule in San Jose State history."
National champion Wisconsin is included on the Spartan schedule which includes only one soft touch. Except for Moffett Field, local ringmen will be battling the toughest this country has to offer in the way of collegiate competition.

Michigan State, the other Spartan Big Ten foe, will meet SJS in the Civic Auditorium March 4. Menendez did not feel the local gym would be able to accommodate the crowd expected to turn out for the match with the Spartans from the Midwest.
Meanwhile Menendez has been running his boxers through stepped-up drills. Several of the ringmen out for the varsity will be competing in the junior-novice division of the Novice Boxing Tournament to be held in the Spartan Gym on Dec. 13-15.

The majority of the San Jose boxers will not get a chance at regular ring competition until the

The four teams finished first and second in their respective league to earn the right to the playoffs. Summer Session Plans Shakespeare for Fans

A Shakespeare Institute in connection with the 1957 Summer Session has been approved by college authorities, according to Dean Joe H. West.

The Institute will consist of a three unit upper division or graduate course in Shakespeare which will be primarily historical and interpretative.

The Speech and Drama Department will offer a three unit course dealing with directing, costuming and various aspects of production. The production of two Shakespearean plays, "Macbeth" and "As You Like It," will culminate the course.

For Summer Session students who are interested in Shakespeare, but are unable to enroll in one or both of the three unit courses, a one unit course will be offered. It will consist of films, lectures and play-going.

Deadline Moved Back

Application deadline for Tau Delta Phi's Work Aid for Scholars $100 fund has been extended until Nov. 28, according to John Rylander, WAFA chairman.

Applications for the fund which grants aid to upper division and graduate students for extra-curricular creative projects can be made through any professor on campus, Rylander said.
